Subject: Legal Notice regarding Dispute

Under the instructions and authority from my client Isha Tripathi, residing at r5tggt, Mobile: +91 9876543210, I hereby address you as follows:

That my client and you entered into a transaction/understanding, as described: The transaction in question pertains to a contractual agreement entered into by both parties, wherein my client, Isha Tripathi, agreed to purchase a certain quantity of goods from your company, XYZ Enterprises Pvt. Ltd. The agreement stipulated that the goods would be delivered within a specified time frame and meet certain quality standards.

That my client fulfilled all obligations as agreed under the understanding/transaction. My client, in good faith, made the necessary payments as per the agreed terms and conditions of the contract, thereby fulfilling her part of the contractual obligations.

That you were obligated to act as per the understanding but failed to do so. Despite receiving the payment, you failed to deliver the goods within the stipulated time frame and the goods that were delivered did not meet the agreed quality standards.

That despite repeated follow-ups, no satisfactory resolution was offered. My client made numerous attempts to resolve the issue amicably through various communications, but all her efforts were met with indifference and negligence on your part.

That such failure indicates breach of trust. Your failure to fulfill your contractual obligations and the subsequent negligence in addressing the issue constitutes a breach of trust and good faith.

That my client has suffered losses and inconvenience, as described: Due to your failure to deliver the goods as per the agreed terms, my client has suffered significant financial losses. The non-delivery of goods has disrupted her business operations, leading to loss of business opportunities and causing undue stress and inconvenience.

That your conduct constitutes a legal wrong under applicable Indian laws, including but not limited to the Indian Contract Act, 1872. Your actions are in clear violation of the provisions of the Indian Contract Act, 1872, specifically Section 73, which deals with compensation for loss or damage caused by breach of contract.

That my client hereby demands that the dispute be resolved immediately by delivering the remaining goods as per the agreed quality standards and compensating for the financial losses incurred due to the delay and substandard goods already delivered.

That if you fail to act within 7 days from the receipt of this notice, legal proceedings (civil and/or criminal) will be initiated at your risk.

That you shall be liable for all litigation costs, damages, and consequences arising from your failure to comply.

That this legal notice serves as a final opportunity for resolution.

This legal notice is issued to you without prejudice to all other legal rights and remedies available to my client under the law.

Kindly treat this as a final and urgent notice.
