Subject: Legal Notice regarding Dispute

Under the instructions and authority from my client Aarav Mehta, residing at sdsd, Mobile: 8767919866, I hereby address you as follows:

That my client and you entered into a transaction/understanding, as described: erg. The said transaction/understanding was based on mutual consent and agreement, and both parties were expected to fulfill their respective obligations as per the terms and conditions of the said transaction/understanding.

That my client fulfilled all obligations as agreed under the understanding/transaction. He acted in good faith and performed his part of the obligations diligently and in a timely manner, as per the terms and conditions of the said transaction/understanding.

That you were obligated to act as per the understanding but failed to do so. Despite the fulfillment of obligations by my client, you have not performed your part of the obligations as per the terms and conditions of the said transaction/understanding.

That despite repeated follow-ups, no satisfactory resolution was offered. My client has made several attempts to communicate with you regarding the fulfillment of your obligations, but all such attempts have been in vain.

That such failure indicates breach of trust. Your non-performance of obligations as per the terms and conditions of the said transaction/understanding amounts to a breach of trust and faith that my client had placed in you.

That my client has suffered losses and inconvenience, as described: sd. Due to your non-performance of obligations, my client has suffered significant losses and inconvenience. The said losses and inconvenience have caused my client undue hardship and distress.

That your conduct constitutes a legal wrong under applicable Indian laws, including but not limited to the Indian Contract Act, 1872. Your non-performance of obligations as per the terms and conditions of the said transaction/understanding amounts to a breach of contract under Section 37 of the Indian Contract Act 1872

Section 37 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872.

That my client hereby demands that the dispute be resolved immediately by the fulfillment of your obligations as per the terms and conditions of the said transaction/understanding.

That if you fail to act within 7 days from the receipt of this notice, legal proceedings (civil and/or criminal) will be initiated at your risk. The said legal proceedings will be initiated for the recovery of losses suffered by my client due to your non-performance of obligations.

That you shall be liable for all litigation costs, damages, and consequences arising from your failure to comply. This includes, but is not limited to, the costs of the legal proceedings, the losses suffered by my client, and any other damages as may be awarded by the court.

That this legal notice serves as a final opportunity for resolution. My client is providing you with this final opportunity to resolve the dispute amicably and avoid legal proceedings.

This legal notice is issued to you without prejudice to all other legal rights and remedies available to my client under the law.

Kindly treat this as a final and urgent notice.

For Aarav Mehta

Through his Legal Counsel,
(Advocate Shalini Tripathi)
