Subject: Legal Notice regarding Dispute

Under the instructions and authority from my client Aarav Mehta, residing at sd, Mobile: 8767919866, I hereby address you as follows:

That my client and you entered into a transaction/understanding, as described: The transaction was a contractual agreement wherein my client, Mr. Aarav Mehta, agreed to provide you with certain goods and services, and in return, you agreed to make the necessary payments within the stipulated time frame. The agreement was made in good faith and with mutual consent.

That my client fulfilled all obligations as agreed under the understanding/transaction. He provided the agreed goods and services in a timely and satisfactory manner, adhering to all the terms and conditions of the contract.

That you were obligated to act as per the understanding but failed to do so. Despite receiving the goods and services as per the agreement, you have failed to make the necessary payments within the agreed time frame, thereby violating the terms of the contract.

That despite repeated follow-ups, no satisfactory resolution was offered. My client has made numerous attempts to contact you and resolve the matter amicably, but all such attempts have been met with silence or evasion on your part.

That such failure indicates breach of trust. Your actions, or rather inactions, have not only breached the contract but also the trust that my client placed in you at the time of entering into the agreement.

That my client has suffered losses and inconvenience, as described: Due to your non-payment, my client has suffered significant financial losses. Additionally, the time and resources spent in following up with you have caused considerable inconvenience and stress.

That your conduct constitutes a legal wrong under applicable Indian laws, including but not limited to the Indian Contract Act, 1872. Your failure to fulfill your contractual obligations amounts to a breach of contract under Section 37 and Section 39 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872

That my client hereby demands that the dispute be resolved immediately by making the full payment of the outstanding amount within the next 7 days.

That if you fail to act within 7 days from the receipt of this notice, legal proceedings (civil and/or criminal) will be initiated at your risk. This may include filing a suit for recovery of the outstanding amount and for damages suffered due to the breach of contract.

That you shall be liable for all litigation costs, damages, and consequences arising from your failure to comply. This includes not only the outstanding amount but also the interest, legal fees, and other costs that may be incurred in the process of recovery.

That this legal notice serves as a final opportunity for resolution. My client is willing to resolve the matter amicably, provided you fulfill your obligations as per the contract.

This legal notice is issued to you without prejudice to all other legal rights and remedies available to my client under the law.

Kindly treat this as a final and urgent notice.

For Aarav Mehta

Through his Legal Counsel,
(Advocate Shalini Tripathi)
