Subject: Legal Notice regarding Dispute

Under the instructions and authority from my client Isha Tripathi, residing at vfd, Mobile: +91 98765 43210, I hereby address you as follows:

That my client and you entered into a transaction/understanding, as described: The transaction was based on a mutual agreement wherein my client, Isha Tripathi, was to receive certain goods or services from your company, XYZ Enterprises Pvt. Ltd. The details of the transaction, referred to as 'hello' in the form data, were clearly outlined and agreed upon by both parties.

That my client fulfilled all obligations as agreed under the understanding/transaction. She complied with all the terms and conditions of the agreement, including but not limited to timely payment and provision of necessary information or resources.

That you were obligated to act as per the understanding but failed to do so. Despite my client's adherence to the agreement, your company failed to deliver the agreed goods or services, thereby breaching the contract.

That despite repeated follow-ups, no satisfactory resolution was offered. My client made numerous attempts to contact your company and resolve the issue, but all her efforts were met with indifference and inaction.

That such failure indicates breach of trust. Your company's failure to fulfill its obligations and its subsequent disregard for my client's concerns has resulted in a severe breach of trust.

That my client has suffered losses and inconvenience, as described: The damages suffered by my client, referred to as 'jhdvchv' in the form data, include financial loss due to non-delivery of the agreed goods or services, mental distress caused by the ordeal, and loss of time and resources spent in futile attempts to resolve the issue.

That your conduct constitutes a legal wrong under applicable Indian laws, including but not limited to the Indian Contract Act, 1872. Your company's failure to fulfill its contractual obligations and its subsequent inaction amounts to a breach of contract under Section 37 and Section 39 of the Indian Contract Act 1872

Section 37 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872.

That my client hereby demands that the dispute be resolved immediately by the delivery of the agreed goods or services and compensation for the damages suffered.

That if you fail to act within 7 days from the receipt of this notice, legal proceedings (civil and/or criminal) will be initiated at your risk.

That you shall be liable for all litigation costs, damages, and consequences arising from your failure to comply.

That this legal notice serves as a final opportunity for resolution.

This legal notice is issued to you without prejudice to all other legal rights and remedies available to my client under the law.

Kindly treat this as a final and urgent notice.

For Isha Tripathi

Through his Legal Counsel,
